

Statement – I have a proven track record of working closely with leaders of the IEEE and representing the interests of the IEEE Computer Society. My primary goal as your director will be to channel the resources of the IEEE to enable you to derive the most value from membership and help you succeed in your career.

- Over 75% of our members are practicing professionals. It is critical for IEEE to expand and deliver high quality products which directly help them to do their jobs better and advance their careers. I will champion focused efforts to enhance our offerings that contain practical technical content and deliver them through a user friendly infrastructure.
- The research community highly values IEEE's products. I will sponsor activities that encourage increased collaboration with sister societies to enhance the breadth and quality of our products. My vision is to create an environment that makes IEEE the venue of choice for showcasing all technological innovations.

I am looking forward to serving as your director. Thank you for being a member and for your participation in the elections.
